QUALIFYING REQUIREMENTS (QR)

DIRECTOR, NTPC SCHOOL OF BUSINESS (NSB)

NSB is a premier Business school focusing on providing excellence in education in the area of energy domain located at Noida. Established in 2014, NSB has enriched India's knowledge economy through two AICTE approved higher education programmes and many other capacity building initiatives.

Applications are invited from distinguished professionals/academics for the post of Director, NTPC School of Business (NSB).

Essential Qualification

- The applicant should be a distinguished academic with a first-class degree in both Bachelor's and Master's level, and with a Ph.D. or equivalent from a reputed institute having at least fifteen years of teaching or research experience; and
- Be below 60 years of age as on the closing date of receipt of applications of this advertisement, and
- Have 15 years of experience or more in Teaching with minimum 03 years at Professor Level.

Apart from the above, the candidate must have active participation in research paper publications and/or authored books.

Desirable Qualification

Candidates having exposure to energy, energy management and power sector shall be preferred.

The candidate is expected to provide key leadership to take the business school to next orbit in terms of growth, business & academic impact and global presence. He/ She must have proven experience in academic administration, institution building and ability to serve the interest of diversified stakeholders in tune with vision & mission of NSB.

The remuneration of Director, NSB, shall be at par with the top Management schools of India. The appointment shall be for a period of five years with an initial probation of 1 year.

Please send application & detailed CV to ssc@nsb.ac.in before November 20, 2026.

For more details about NSB, please visit www.nsb.ac.in.